25X1 1. Troops held a river-crossing practice on the Saale River northwest of MAUBURG (I-52/J 89) on 15 October 1949. An engineer unit of about 100 men threw a pontoon bridge across the river about 1,600 feet west of the railroad bridge. Motorized infantry units of about 300 troops crossed the river on the bridge.

2. The following observations were made in MAUBURG on 14 November 1949:

a. Former Bismarck Kaserne on Eisenzelserstrasse:

(1) Heavily occupied by artillery units totaling about 800 troops, including numerous recruits.

(2) Maintenance work was done on a gun in front of a repair shop in the eastern kaserne section.
